Situated at the site of the original 1969 Woodstock festival in Bethel, New York, The Bethel Woods Center for the Arts is entering its third exciting concert season at the 15,000 seat Pavilion Stage; and The Museum at Bethel Woods, which explores the legacy of the Sixties and Woodstock, will open in June. Concert-goers will have the opportunity to purchase admission to The Museum in addition to their concert tickets, allowing them to enjoy all that Bethel Woods Center for the Arts has to offer.

The 2008 concert calendar will be announced shortly, but fans can expect a diverse musical offering including world-class artists in the classical, pop, jazz, country and rock genres. Additional confirmed performers include Cyndi Lauper with special guests including the B-52s on June 14, Ringo Starr and His All Starr Band on June 21, The New York Philharmonic on June 28, Chicago and The Doobie Brothers on June 29, and the Boston Pops Esplanade Orchestra on August 22.

The Wyckoff, New Jersey-based Jonas Brothers were the opening act on the blockbuster sell-out Hannah Montana & Miley Cyrus Best of Both Worlds tour this winter, and also appeared in the Best of Both Worlds Concert film, which was the highest-grossing concert film ever. They are currently wrapping up their hugely successful Look Me in the Eyes tour where they played to sold-out shows in every city.

Their self-titled Hollywood Records album was co-written by the band and has recently achieved platinum status. Their latest single "When You Look Me in the Eyes" is steadily climbing Top 40 radio. The band has finished their much anticipated third album and again, share writing credits on the entire album. The CD is being produced by John Fields and is scheduled for release in August 2008.

Taking their music and touring to the next level for their ever-growing fan base, the Jonas Brothers promise to bring their most exciting production yet to the Bethel Woods stage this summer. The Burning Up Tour kicks off in Toronto on July 4 and will see the band once again performing across America, headlining amphitheaters for the very first time. "We've had an awesome time touring and having an opportunity to see so many of our fans," said the Jonas Brothers. "Every time we play, we learn so much and grow both as artists and a band. We really can't wait to get back on the road this summer." The Burning Up Tour is produced by Live Nation.

ABOUT BETHEL WOODS CENTER FOR THE ARTS

The mission of Bethel Woods Center for the Arts is to present compelling programs from the arts that educate, entertain and engage audiences of all ages, to institute community outreach and education and improve the quality of life and vitality of the Sullivan County region. Bethel Woods Center for the Arts is located approximately 90 minutes from New York City at the site of the original 1969 Woodstock Festival in Bethel, NY. The 15,000-seat outdoor performing arts venue and the soon-to-be-opened Museum at Bethel Woods are set within 2,000 bucolic acres. The main pavilion covers 4,500 seats with another 10,500 on a natural sloping lawn while offering unique backdrops including the original festival site and the majesty of the surrounding Sullivan County countryside. The venue presents a diverse selection of popular artists, a range of orchestral performances, community events and music and arts educational opportunities. By providing artists with the opportunity to perform on one of music's most legendary grounds, Bethel Woods Center for the Arts is committed to being a world-class cultural destination. In addition, The Museum at Bethel Woods slated to open in June 2008 will further embed this arts campus as one of the premier sites in New York State.
