"We are thrilled to welcome Pamal Broadcasting and the WSPK team back to Bethel Woods Center for the Arts this summer," says Darlene Fedun, Chief Executive Officer at Bethel Woods. "This partnership continues to bring new audiences and sounds to our historic site and we look forward to seeing what this year has in store."

Scotty Mac, WSPK Program Director, adds, "K104 could not be more thrilled to be part of Bethel Woods' Season of Song & Celebration. We are excited for our listeners to experience this year's KFEST at the very site celebrating the 50th anniversary of the greatest festival of all time [and are] looking forward to being part of more memories at this special venue with KFEST 2019 and our exciting KFEST lineup!" Pamal Broadcasting General Manager, Bruce Feniger also adds, "We are very excited for the third year in a row to partner with the great team at Bethel Woods to host KFEST 2019. Bethel Woods has been the game changer for this event that we all knew it would be. Bethel is such a fantastic and historic venue and we look forward to once again this year giving our listeners the best listening experience they could ever ask for."

About Bethel Woods Center for the Arts

Bethel Woods Center for the Arts inspires, educates, and empowers individuals through the arts and humanities by presenting a diverse selection of culturally-rich performances, popular artists, and community and educational programming. Located 90 miles from New York City at the site of the 1969 Woodstock festival in Bethel, NY, the lush 800-acre campus includes a Pavilion Stage amphitheater with seating for 15,000, an intimate 440-seat indoor Event Gallery, the award-winning Museum at Bethel Woods, and a Conservatory for arts education programming.

Through the in-depth study and exhibition of the social, political, and cultural events of the 1960s, as well as the preservation of the historic site of the Woodstock Music and Art Fair, Bethel Woods educates individuals about the issues and lessons of the decade while inspiring a new generation to contribute positively to the world around them. The not-for-profit organization relies on the generous support of individuals, corporations, and foundations to develop and sustain programs that improve the quality of life in the region and beyond.
