(Bethel Woods, NY – February 6, 2019)— Mountain Jam, one of the Northeast’s largest rock n’ roll camping music festivals, now in its 15th continuous year, has announced its lineup for the 4 day music extravaganza June 13-16 2019. The Festival will feature Willie Nelson & Family, Gov’t Mule, The Avett Brothers, The Revivalists, Joe Russo’s Almost Dead, Dispatch, Alison Krauss & Union Station, Toots & The Maytals, Lukas Nelson & The Promise of the Real, Twiddle, Mandolin Orange, Sister Sparrow, Amy Helm, Allman/Betts and approximately 40 other bands across 3 stages. An additional headliner will be announced later in the spring. Tickets for Mountain Jam 2019 go on sale this Friday, February 8 starting at 10am with more information on ticket pricing, camping & travel packages available online at www.mountainjam.com.

Mountain Jam 2019 will take place in a new location – on the grounds of the gorgeous Bethel Woods Center for the Arts, the home of the historic 1969 Woodstock Music Festival. Mountain Jam will be the first rock n’ roll camping festival on the original Woodstock site in 50 years.

This year also marks the return of Gov’t Mule front man and GRAMMY Award-winning vocalist, songwriter, producer and revered guitarist Warren Haynes as co-presenter of Mountain Jam alongside Radio Woodstock and Live Nation, organizers of Peach Music Festival. Also headlining is the legendary musician, singer songwriter, author, poet, actor, and activist Willie Nelson, who will feature acts from his acclaimed Outlaw Music Festival on the Mountain Jam line-up.

“Mountain Jam has continuously evolved over the past 15 years, growing from a small one day festival to one of the largest annual multi-day rock and camping festivals in the Northeast” said Mountain Jam Founder Gary Chetkof. “It’s a dream come true to present this year’s event at Bethel Woods, one of the most beautiful places to see live music in the country. This year's Mountain Jam returns to its jamband roots celebrating the musical legacy which started 50 years on this iconic site. We are thrilled to be reunited once again with Warren Haynes to celebrate with our family of bands and fans who have been the heart and soul of Mountain Jam from its inception."

Warren Haynes, who co-presented Mountain Jam's first 12 years, said "Having been there for the foundation and development of Mountain Jam including the curation of artists and music over the first 12 years and headlining with Gov't Mule, Warren Haynes Band, The Allman Brothers Band, Phil Lesh & Friends and sitting in with countless others, I am pleased to be returning for the festival's 15th anniversary. Mountain Jam is changing its home, but going back to its roots. And I am happy to say that myself and Gov't Mule will be returning as well. See you in June."

"We are thrilled to be hosting Mountain Jam at Bethel Woods during the golden anniversary year. It is a wonderful opportunity to bring music, community, and art to the historic site. Mountain Jam will be one of many exciting opportunities to visit us throughout all of 2019 and we are truly looking forward to providing diverse programming for our friends, supporters, and guests from near and far," said Darlene Fedun, Chief Executive Officer, Bethel Woods Center for the Arts.

Mountain Jam kicks off Thursday, June 13th with a pre-party for 4-day pass holders featuring musical performances by Twiddle, Marco Benevento and more followed by three full days of music. General Admission and a variety of VIP packages will be available beginning Friday, February 8th at 10am. Beginning in 2019 fans can enjoy car-side camping packages including GA camping, Glamping, RV Village & VIP Camping. Travel packages including hotel accommodations and shuttles to and from the festival daily are also available. For a complete list of available packages please visit www.mountainjam.com.

This year's Mountain Jam Festival will feature a yoga program each morning with a special class held by Michael Franti on Sunday. There will be on-site attractions including a ferris wheel to provide fans the opportunity to take in the beautiful views of the original Woodstock site and Catskill Mountains while watching the music. The Museum at Bethel Woods will be opened exclusively for festival attendees free of charge. A wide variety of food (from gourmet and organic fare to comfort food), arts & crafts vendors, and artist encounters. Craft beer and premium wines will once again be featured.

About Warren Haynes

Visionary GRAMMY Award-winning artist Warren Haynes is a cornerstone of the American music landscape, lauded as one of the most formidable guitarists and vocalists of the modern era and a prolific songwriter and producer. He effortlessly cross-pollinates genres and unfurls solos that broil with passion in his distinctive, signature style. Throughout his prolific career as part of three of the greatest live groups in rock history – Allman Brothers Band, Gov't Mule and the Dead – and an acclaimed solo artist, he has become one of music's most treasured storytellers and his artistry has led to thousands of memorable performances and millions of album and track sales. Haynes is a beacon of creativity and musical excellence that inspires fans as well as fellow musicians, evidenced by the diverse array of artists that he has performed and recorded with. As the front man of Gov't Mule, Haynes along with his bandmates drummer Matt Abts, keyboardist Danny Louis and bassist Jorgen Carlsson, create consistently honest, organic and daring music, leading them to be recognized as one of the most timeless, revered and active bands in the world whose spot amongst rock titans remains unshakable. The enduring, globally revered group, has showcased its virtuosity, intelligence and breadth over the course of 16 studio and live albums. Their flexible interplay in the studio and on stage makes them a true living, breathing ensemble. Gov't Mule has become a human encyclopedia of great American music while adding to that canon with their signature sound. Gov't Mule's acclaimed 10th studio album Revolution Come... Revolution Go is out now. For more on Warren Haynes and Gov't Mule, please visit www.mule.net.
