100 New York Breweries Confirmed for TAP® New York Craft Beer & Food Festival at Bethel Woods

Two-day festival and prestigious competition to showcase over 200 hand-crafted beers from breweries around the state

April 26, 2022 (BETHEL, NY) – Bethel Woods Center for the Arts—a non-profit performance venue, museum and site of the 1969 Woodstock festival— today announced the lineup of breweries attending this year’s TAP® New York Craft Beer & Food Festival on May 21 and 22. In its 23rd year, TAP® New York is the state’s longest-running craft beer festival and will feature over 100 breweries and 200 carefully-crafted beers from across New York State during its first year at Bethel Woods’ iconic grounds.

“We are thrilled to welcome so many incredible craft breweries to our grounds for TAP® New York’s inaugural festival at Bethel Woods,” said Eric Frances, CEO, Bethel Woods Center for the Arts. “It has always been our mission to bring people together for memorable experiences, and we can’t wait to provide attendees with the ultimate craft beer, food, and music event.”

Recognized as one of the most prestigious beer competitions in the country, beer experts and guest judges will determine awards for best breweries and best beers in New York State, including The F.X. Matt Memorial Cup for best New York brewery; The Matthew Vassar Brewers Cup for best Hudson Valley brewery; and The Governor’s Cup for the best New York beer. Judging will occur on Sunday, May 15, and winners will be announced on Saturday, May 21.

“With more than 460 craft breweries, New York houses the second highest number of breweries in the country,” said Nat Collins, founder, TAP® New York. “Our annual festival and beer competition allows us to celebrate and recognize the diverse, innovative craft beers that our state has to offer.”

About TAP® New York

TAP® New York started out with a couple hundred beer fanatics and a handful of craft brewers at the prestigious Culinary Institute of America in Hyde Park. Now in its 23rd year, TAP® New York has grown into the largest craft beer and food event in New York State, featuring over 100 breweries offering everything from IPAs and lagers to weissbiers, doppel and trippel bocks, stouts, ales and any variety you know of, and probably a few that you don't.
